Location

The historic town of Calvià is the heart of one of the island's most popular communities. Its fantastic geographical location at the foot of the Tramuntana mountains in southwest Majorca means that it is easily accessible from most major holiday resorts.

As a UNESCO World Heritage Site, the Serra de Tramuntana is the breathtaking backbone of Mallorca.

In the municipality of Calvià you will find a large number of old mansions of very high cultural value, which have a long tradition in this part of the island.

The coast of Calvià is one of the most carved coastal areas of Mallorca and consists of a variety of headlands, bays, headlands and small coves.

Ten of the area's many beautiful beaches have been awarded the Blue Flag Foundation for their environmental quality. A dream destination for beach lovers who want to explore this region.
