Location

The historic town of Calvià is the heart of one of the island's most popular communities. The fantastic geographical location at the foot of the Sierra de Tramuntana in southwest Mallorca allows easy access to most major tourist centers.

As a World Heritage Site by UNESCO, the Serra de Tramuntana is the backbone of Mallorca.

In the municipality of Calvià you will find a large number of old mansions of very high cultural value, which have a long tradition in this part of the island.

The coast of Calvià is one of the most protected coastal areas of Majorca and consists of a variety of rocky outcrops, coves, rocky outcrops and small bays.

Ten of the beautiful beaches in the area have been awarded the Blue Flag for their environmental quality.
